

Intellectual Property & Information Law Program

at Cardozo School of Law

Intellectual Property Law Scholarships

The Richard Linn American Inn of Court

Mark T. Banner Scholarship

Eligibility: Open to all law students who have entered into a J.D. program at an ABA-accredited law school in the United States.

More information: www.linninn.org

Intellectual Property Owners Education Foundation

Donald W. Banner Corporate Intern Scholarships

Eligibility: Applicants must have completed an internship in a corporate intellectual property department and must be enrolled in law school. Applicants must submit a statement about the internship, a statement explaining why the applicant intends to pursue a career in intellectual property law, internship references and evidence of academic achievement in law school.

More information: www.ipoef.org

American Intellectual Property Law Education Foundation

Sidney B. Williams, Jr. Intellectual Property Law Scholarships

Eligibility: Open to currently enrolled law students who are U.S. citizens, members of the American Intellectual Property Law Association, and members of an underrepresented minority group. Applicants must demonstrate commitment to a career in intellectual property law and submit two letters of recommendation along with other application materials.

More information: <http://www.aiplef.org/scholars/sidney-b-williams-jr-scholarships/>

American Intellectual Property Law Education Foundation

Jan Jancin Competition

Eligibility: Open to all students enrolled at a law school with at least one intellectual property law course. Candidates to be selected by the dean or appropriate faculty member of the law school on the basis of any reasonable criteria. Nominated students must complete an application and submit a one-page essay discussing personal achievements in the field of intellectual property law.

More information: <http://www.aiplef.org/scholars/jan-jancin-award/>

The Federal Circuit Bar Association

Howard T. Markey Memorial Scholarship

Giles Sutherland Rich Memorial Scholarship

William S. Bullinger Scholarships

Intellectual Property & Information Law Program

at Cardozo School of Law

Eligibility: Open to all law students. Selection decisions made primarily on the basis of applicant's written statement of financial need, written statement of interest in intellectual property law and other relevant qualifications for the award.

More information: <https://fedcirbar.org/Pro-Bono-Scholarships/Scholarships/Rules>

American Bar Association - BNA Books

Student Award Program for Excellence in the Study of Intellectual Property Law

Eligibility: Open to second- and third-year law students selected by participating law schools on the basis of grade point average or other similar criteria in a basic intellectual property law course.

More information: <http://www.bnabooks.com/awards>